| Customer Assistance.                | 82. | (1) All licensees must establish clear customer service policies for assessing and handling situations. (2) Where a customer indicates a distress, staff of the licensee shall immediately freeze the account of the customer. (3) Staff, customer service agents, affiliates and agents shall be knowledgeable about applicable helpline(s), setting account deposit limits, temporary and permanent self-exclusion, responsible game-play, rules and pay-out ratios, age limits and addiction resources and shall provide such information on request. |
| Protection of Customer Information. | 83. | (1) A licensee may collect and maintain information on individual customers reasonably required for its business   | purposes; however, the collection and maintenance of information on individual customers shall be-

- (a) fairly and lawfully collected and processed;
- (b) processed for limited and identified purposes;
- (c) relevant and not excessive;
- (d) accurate;
- (e) processed in accordance with the customer's right of privacy;
- (f) protected against improper or accidental disclosure; and
- (g) shall not be kept longer than necessary nor transferred to any party except as permitted by terms and conditions agreed with the customer, or as approved by the Authority, the Federal Competition and Consumer Protection Commission Act or as required by other applicable laws or regulations.

(2) Notwithstanding the above, licensees' rights to collect and maintain customer information is without prejudice to the rights of the Nigerian Communications Commission under Section 147 of the Nigeria Communications Act, or court order or national security outfit in certain situations to allow "authorised interception of communications", including stipulating the technical requirements for such authorised interception.

(3) All licensees shall meet generally accepted fair information principles including -

- (a) providing a notice in respect of the individual customer information they collect, its use or disclosure;
- (b) the choices customers have with regards to the collection, use and, disclosure of that information;
- (c) the access customers have to accurate information; and
- (d) the security measures taken to protect the information, the enforcement and redress mechanisms that are in place to remedy any failure to observe these measures.

(4) These rules apply to individual customer information obtained through any means, so long as that information is retained by the licensee in any recorded form.

(5) Any licensee that collects information on individual customers shall adopt and implement a policy regarding the proper collection, use and protection of that information; such policy must ensure that any other licensee or other persons with whom they exchange or otherwise disclose such information have adopted and implemented an appropriate policy for the protection of customer information.

- (6) A licensee's policy on the protection of customer information shall be made fair, just and accessible as directed by the Authority.
- (7) The policy must state clearly what information is being collected, its use, the possible third-party exchange or disclosure and the choices available to the customer regarding collection, use and disclosure of the information.

Complaints Handling Procedure.

(8) The policy must also include a clear statement of how to contact the licensee regarding access to information, complaint mechanisms and any other related issue.

(1) All licensees must provide easily understood information about their complaint processes in various formats, including print and electronic formats and any other format that may be specifically directed by the Authority.

(2) Licensees shall ensure that customers can easily identify how a complaint may be lodged, either at a licensee's premises or on the licensee's website or by using other identifiable formats.

- (a) to customers about their right to complain;
- (b) on how licensees can be contacted in order to make a complaint; and
- (c) on the types of supporting information required, such as, documents the complainant needs to furnish when making a complaint.

(4) All complaints must be recorded by licensees and processed in accordance with identified practices and procedures.

(5) Licensees shall make adequate provision to ensure that people with special needs are able to access their complaint handling processes, including ensuring customers can be easily represented by their authorised representatives in order to make a complaint.

(6) In cases where customers specifically request assistance in lodging complaints, licensees are encouraged to provide reasonable assistance.

(7) All complaints must be acknowledged by the licensee and acted on within the set time frame contained in the licensee's customer protection policy.

(8) Licensees must advise customers when they make a complaint, of the expected actions and timing for investigating and resolving the complaints. Where a licensee regards the complaint as frivolous or vexatious, the customer shall be informed accordingly and if dissatisfied, the customer shall have further recourse of action in accordance with this Law. However, no customer complaint shall remain unresolved for more than three (3) months.

(9) Licensees must implement processes to provide customers with sufficient information and the means to inquire on the progress of complaints; and must advise customers on investigation outcomes.

(10) Where a customer is not satisfied with a decision reached pursuant to a complaint, the customer must have the option of pursuing an identified escalation process by which the decision may be examined by a suitably qualified person in the licensee's organisation. Where the customer has already been provided with the benefit of the licensee's escalation process and where there are no further escalation processes, the licensee shall inform the customer accordingly.

(11) In the event that a complaint has not been resolved to the customer's satisfaction, within ninety (90) days of receiving the complaint, the licensee shall inform the customer to refer the complaint to the Authority.

(12) Failure to deal with customer complaints, and any related service failure, shall constitute an offence, punishable under this Law.

(13) All complaint handling processes shall be provided free of charge. However, a licensee may impose a reasonable charge for complaint handling processes where investigation of the complaint requires the retrieval of records of more than twelve (12) months, and where that retrieval results in any incremental expense or significant inconvenience to the licensee, such charge shall be identified and agreed to by the customer before being incurred.

(14) For disputes that remain unresolved by other means, the Authority may apply the processes set out in the Alternative Dispute Resolution Law of the State and the licensee and customer shall comply.

(15) A licensee shall avoid imposing any disconnection or credit management action regarding any service to which a complaint or billing dispute relates while the complaint or dispute is being investigated. The licensee shall inform the customer that, while the complaint or dispute, is being investigated, the customer is obliged to make payment of outstanding sum other than the amount in dispute.

(16) Where a licensee intends to take disconnection or credit management action against a player regarding any amount that has been the subject of a complaint or dispute, the licensee shall notify the customer before taking the action.

(17) Licensees shall have appropriate recording systems for complaints and their outcomes for tracking purposes to aid with analysis and identification of recurring problems and to procure solutions for an ethical gaming society.

(18) Licensees shall update any information regarding their complaint handling and tracking processes, including information provided to players or the Authority.

(19) Information collected and recorded as part of the licensee's complaint handling processes shall be retained by licensees for at least twelve (12) months following resolution of a complaint in accordance with this Section.

(20) The Authority may audit the complaints handling and tracking processes of licensees to ensure the overall effectiveness of customer codes in achieving set objectives.
